REGULATIONS SURVIVING IN TERMS OF

Education Act 16 of 2001
section 81(5)

Regulations on Financial Aid to Recognised Mission Schools for Coloured Pupils

Government Notice 61 of 1964

(OG 2546)

came into force on 15 December 1963

The Regulations relating to Financial Aid to Recognised Mission Schools for Coloured Pupils were originally made in terms of section 117 of the Education Ordinance 27 of 1962, which was repealed by section 83 of the Education Act 16 of 2001. Pursuant to section 81(5) of the Education Act 16 of 2001, the Regulations relating to Financial Aid to Recognised Mission Schools for Coloured Pupils are deemed to have been made under that Act.

“building” means any approved school building erected or hired or used exclusively for the purpose of giving instruction in it to pupils and shall include any annexes approved for the use of pupils or teachers for the provision of effective instruction and shall also include any water installation intended exclusively for the maintenance of such school but shall not include any buildings erected for the accomodadation of pupils or teachers attached to such school, nor the land upon which such buildings are erected;

[The word “accommodation” above is misspelt,
reproduced as it appears in the Official Gazette.]

“erection cost” means the expenditure incurred in the erection of the building as substantiated by invoices and receipts.

2. In respect of mission schools referred to in subsection (2) of section ninety-three of the ordinance the salaries and allowances of teachers whose appointments have been approved by the Department, approved expenditure on water, sanitation, cleaning, caretakers’ and other approved services and the cost of approved furniture and equipment shall be paid.

3. In respect of approved buildings considered by the Department to be necessary in connection with a school and used exclusively for approved purposes, financial aid may be rendered -

- (a) if such building is the property of the authority, body or person responsible for the establishment of this school, and was erected or acquired -
 - (i) before the first day of April, 1918, in the form of an allowance at four per cent a year of the official valuation of such building;
 - (ii) during the period from the first day of April, 1918, up to and including the thirty-first day of December, 1928, in the form of an allowance at a rate determined by the Department but not higher than six per cent a year of the cost of erection or purchase of such building;
 - (iii) during the period from the first day of January, 1929, up to and including the thirty-first day of December, 1956, in the form of an allowance at a rate determined by the Department but not higher than seven per cent a year of the cost of erection or purchase of such building;
 - (iv) after the thirty-first day of December, 1956, in the form of an allowance at a rate determined by the Department but not higher than eight per cent a year of the cost of erection or purchase of such building, and
- (b) if such building is hired by the authority, body or person responsible for the establishment of the school, in the form of an allowance at a rate determined by the Department but not higher than the rental which is being paid or eight per cent a year of the cost of erection or purchase of such building, whichever is the lesser:

Provided that where the cost of erection or purchase of a building cannot be ascertained by the Department, such cost shall, for the purpose of this regulation, be deemed to be equal to the official valuation of such building: Provided further that from the first day of January, 1964, only the cost of erection or purchase of such building shall be used as a basis for the valuation of an allowance unless a rental is paid under paragraph (b) above.
