(g) a sample format of information that a credit bureau may supply to subscribers;

(h) a prototype of the final product that demonstrates the principal features and functions of the system; and

(i) payment of a non-refundable application fee as provided in Annexure 4.

(3) The Bank must consider an application for a licence within 60 working days after the date of receipt of the application.

Issuance of licence

5. (1) If the applicant meets the requirements set out in these regulations, the Bank must issue the applicant with a credit bureau licence.

(2) Where the Bank is dissatisfied with the information submitted by the applicant for purposes of processing the application -

(a) the Bank may request for additional information; or

(b) for the applicant to make representation before the Bank makes a final determination.
Where the Bank is satisfied that all the necessary requirements are met, the Bank must notify the applicant to submit to the Bank a declaration sworn under oath by the chief executive officer of the applicant in the form set out in Annexure 2.

Where the Bank is satisfied that the requirements of subregulation (3) are complied with, the Bank must issue a licence with a number to the applicant permitting it to carry on the business of a credit bureau.

A credit bureau must at all times display the licence issued under subregulation (4) at the place of business and quote such number when dealing with the Bank, credit providers, credit performance information providers, data subjects and debt collection agencies.

The Bank may -

(a) endorse a licence granted under these regulations with such conditions as the Bank may consider necessary; and

(b) add, vary or substitute such conditions as the Bank considers appropriate.

Refusal to issue licence

Where the requirements of issuance of a licence as provided in these regulations are not met, the Bank may refuse to grant such licence and must communicate the reasons for its refusal to the applicant.

An aggrieved party may appeal to the Minister within 21 working days after being notified of the refusal.

After the receipt of an appeal filed under regulation 6(2) the Minister must consider the appeal based on the information submitted in the application for registration in terms of regulation 4.

The Minister may –

(a) confirm the decision of the Bank; or

(b) reverse the decision of the Bank if -

(i) the Bank failed to follow the laid down procedures;

(ii) the decision of the Bank was contrary to law;

(iii) there was no factual basis for the Bank to refuse the application; or

(iv) based on the review of the record, the Bank committed an apparent error in its assessment of facts or abused its discretion.

The Bank and the appellant under this regulation are bound by the decision of the Minister on appeal.

A credit bureau is required to pay to the Bank an annual licence fee as as set out in Annexure 4.
(2) The annual license fee referred to in subregulation (1) is paid at the time of registration and every other year before the anniversary date of registration for the licence to be renewed by the Bank.

(3) A credit bureau must pay its annual licence fee before or on the date of anniversary of its registration.

(4) Where the annual fee is not paid in terms of subregulation (3), the bureau must pay double the licence fee, if payment is made within 60 working days after the date of its registration.

(5) If payment is made after the 60 working days in terms of subregulation (4), the Bank may revoke the licence of the credit bureau.

Validity of licence

9. A licence issued under these regulations remains valid, unless revoked by the Bank.

Notice to revoke licence

10. (1) Where the Bank intends to suspend or revoke a licence it must issue a written notice to the credit bureau giving reasons to suspend or revoke the licence.

(2) The written notice referred to in subregulation (1) must request the credit bureau to make written representation to the Bank within the period specified in the notice to show cause why the licence may not be suspended or revoked.

Application for review

11. (1) The credit bureau may, within 21 working days from the date of receipt of the notice of intention to suspend or revoke a licence, apply to the Bank for review of such intention stating the reasons and provide further information to be considered by the Bank.

(2) The Bank may, at the expiration of 21 working days provided for in subregulation (1) and after considering the representations, if any, made by the credit bureau concerned -

(a) suspend or revoke the licence;

(b) amend the conditions subject to which the licence was granted; or

(c) decide not to suspend or revoke the licence or to amend the conditions referred to in paragraph (b), and must as soon as possible in writing inform the credit bureau of its decision.

(3) If a licence referred to in subregulation (2) is suspended or revoked and the credit bureau is not satisfied with the decision of the Bank to suspend or revoke such a licence the credit bureau may appeal to the Minister within 21 working days of being informed of the decision of the Bank.

(4) The decision of the Minister given in terms of subregulation (3) is binding on all parties.

Surrender of licence

12. A credit bureau must surrender the licence to the Bank where a credit bureau terminates its business or has its licence revoked.
Transfer of licence

13. The licence issued under these regulations may not be transferred.

PART 3
COLLECTION OF CREDIT PERFORMANCE INFORMATION

Sources of credit performance information

14. (1) A registered credit bureau may collect, receive, collate, compile and disseminate credit performance information concerning a data subject from sources set out in Annexure 3.

(2) The source referred to in subregulation (1) is obliged to provide information to all licenced credit bureaus.

Search enquiries

15. (1) A credit bureau must maintain a record of all search enquiries made on the credit history of the data subject.

(2) The record referred to in subregulation (1), includes the date of the search enquiry and name of the person who conducted the search.

(3) Where the results of a search enquiry show that there is no unfavourable credit information of the data subject, a record must be created and maintained on the subject of the search enquiry including the –

(a) date of the search enquiry;

(b) name of the subscriber user; and

(c) purpose of the search enquiry.

(4) A record of both favourable and unfavourable information created in terms of subregulation (3) is made available to credit providers for credit assessment purposes.

17. A credit bureau may not contain in its database or include in the credit report any information relating to the race, colour, ethnic origin, sex, religion or social or economic status of the data subject.

PART 4
OBLIGATIONS OF CREDIT BUREAU

Collected information

18. (1) A credit bureau must accept the filing of credit performance information from any source set out in Annexure 3.

(2) A credit bureau must take all reasonable precautions to ensure that all credit performance information received or collected is –

(a) properly and accurately recorded, maintained, collected and classified, processed, updated and consolidated in order to provide a comprehensive representation on a data subject;

(b) protected against loss by ensuring availability of data back up and disaster recovery facilities; and

(c) protected against unauthorised access, use, modification or disclosure.

Credit reports

19. (1) A credit bureau must implement the following measures in relation to credit reports -

(a) establish controls and procedures to be applied when subscribers request credit reports from the credit bureau;
(b) maintain automated system to retrieve credit performance information and a system to trace each entry made in the credit performance information of a data subject and to trace all accessed credit performance information by subscribers;

(c) maintain a system to trace proven or suspected breaches of security that include details of credit history affected, details of the breach, and any action taken as a result of an investigation;

(d) review on a regular basis of password controls of all credit bureau personnel and subscribers; and

(e) create operational guidelines to ensure adequate protection to minimise the risk of unauthorised access of the credit bureau database.

(2) A credit bureau must issue a credit report to a data subject in a hard copy or uneditable electronic format.

(3) A credit bureau must furnish a copy of the credit report requested by a data subject within five working days of the date of request.

Restrictions on use of credit performance information

20. (1) A credit bureau must -

(a) protect the confidentiality of consumer information received in terms of these regulations and must only report or release such information to subscribers as explicitly authorised in writing by the data subject concerned, subject to subregulation (3), or any other law; and

(b) observe through its shareholders, directors, officers, employees or agents, a perpetual duty of confidentiality with regard to the information divulged to them in terms of these regulations.

(2) A credit bureau must release credit performance information to a subscriber or law enforcement agency -

(v) accurate;
(vi) truthful; and
(vii) that it reflects the credit history of the data subject;

(d) take measures necessary to correct credit performance information in its database that is contrary to provisions of these regulations or are inaccurate or no longer valid;

(e) maintain rigorous standards of security and reliability; and

(f) protect data against any loss, corruption, destruction, misuse, undue access or disclosure.

PART 5
OBLIGATION OF CREDIT PERFORMANCE INFORMATION PROVIDER

Obligations of credit performance information providers

22. (1) A credit performance information provider must -

(a) provide credit performance information to all credit bureaus that meet the requirements as set out in these regulations;

(b) enter into an agreement with credit bureaus that stipulates the conditions for supplying, obtaining and using credit performance information, which agreement may not be inconsistent with these regulations; and

(c) undertake to provide complete, accurate and timely credit information that accurately reflects the consumer behaviour of the data subject.

(2) Where -

(a) credit performance information is found to be inaccurate by the credit bureau; or

(b) the accuracy of credit performance information is challenged by the data subject, the credit performance information provider must institute investigations.

(3) A credit information provider must complete the investigation instituted in terms of subregulation (2) within 20 working days.
PART 6
DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS AND PROTECTION

Right to information and data

23. (1) A data subject has a right to -

(a) be informed by a credit provider upon approval of credit application regarding the type of information shared or to be shared on the data subject;

(b) access a credit report from a credit bureau related to that specific data subject;

(c) obtain a free copy of a credit report related to that specific data subject from a credit bureau, upon request, if the data subject is a natural person, once every 12 months to be delivered in a medium and manner as agreed upon between the data subject and the credit bureau; and

(d) challenge information contained in the credit report.

(2) A data subject who is a corporate entity must, upon a request for a credit report, pay a fee to the credit bureau for the credit report to be delivered to it in a medium and manner as agreed between it and the credit bureau.

Right to challenge information

24. (1) A credit bureau must inform a data subject of his or her right to challenge the information maintained in the credit bureau database at the time the data subject requests a copy of his or her credit report.

(2) Where a data subject is of the view that credit performance information maintained in the credit bureau database is -

(a) inaccurate;

(b) erroneous; or

(c) outdated,

the data subject may notify the credit bureau of the disputed information.

(3) Where a credit bureau is challenged for issuing credit report containing inaccurate, erroneous or outdated information, it -

(a) must endorse the disputed credit report with a note on specific items which are subject to dispute, until such time when the dispute is resolved;

(b) must request the credit performance information provider to provide credible evidence within seven working days in support of the challenged information;

(c) must within 20 working days after the filing of the challenge –

(i) provide a copy of any such credible evidence to the person who filed the challenge; or

(ii) remove the information, and all record of it, from its files, if it is unable to find credible evidence in support of the challenged information;
(d) may not report any information that is challenged until the challenge has been resolved in terms of this subregulations to avoid giving such challenged information.

(4) A credit bureau must provide the data subject whose disputed credit performance information has been corrected with a correct credit report free of charge.

(5) Where a credit performance information provider has provided a credit bureau with information that is disputed, a data subject may appeal to the Bank within five working days of receipt of information of the completion of the investigation of the disputed information.

(6) The Bank must investigate and consider the appeal referred to in subregulation (5) within 15 working days and communicate its findings in writing to the -

(a) credit performance information provider;

(b) credit bureau; and

(c) data subject concerned.

(7) Any information under dispute is flagged as disputed information in all credit reports until the appeal referred to in subregulation (5) has been finalised.

(8) Where it transpires after the investigation of disputed information by the Bank in terms of subregulation (6) that there are no grounds for the data subject to dispute the information, the credit bureau has the right to re-enter the credit performance information of the data subject into the relevant credit reports.

Record of challenges

25. (1) A credit bureau must -

(a) maintain a record of all challenged information and its status;

(b) document the manner in which it was resolved; and

(c) relay such information monthly to the bank, in a format determined by the Bank.

Suspension of access

26. (1) Where a credit performance information provider fails to respond or conclude necessary investigations within 20 working days in terms of regulation 24(3)(c), the credit bureau must -

(a) suspend access by the credit performance information provider to credit performance information until the failure to respond or the conclusion of necessary investigations is rectified; and

(b) report such incidence to the Bank.

Fee charged by credit bureau

27. A credit bureau may charge a fee as per its fee structure for its services, notified and submitted to the Bank through periodic returns in terms of regulation 28(3).
PART 7
POWER OF BANK

Power of Bank

28. (1) The Bank is authorised to licence, regulate and supervise credit bureaus.

(2) In exercising its powers under sub-regulation (1), the Bank must -

(a) inspect credit bureau premises and operations to ensure compliance to these regulations;

(b) ensure that a credit bureau continues to meet the requirements of registration in terms of regulation 3; and

(c) issue –

(i) directives;

(ii) determinations;

(iii) guidelines; and

(iv) circulars,

to direct and clarify the way the Bank carries out its supervisory functions under these regulations.

(3) A credit bureau must submit to the Bank periodic returns and statistics in the format and frequency determined by the Bank.

Inspection by Bank

29. (1) The Bank may conduct inspections at any credit bureau.

(2) Before conducting an inspection, the Bank must provide reasonable notice to the credit bureau.

(3) The credit bureau must, prior or during inspection, furnish any record, data or information requested by the Bank.

(4) After conducting physical inspection, the Bank must provide the credit bureau with a summary of findings on deficient areas requiring correction and the credit bureau must provide an action plan for correction of the deficiencies within 10 working days after the conclusion of the inspection.

(5) If the Bank is satisfied with the action plan contemplated in subregulation (4), the Bank must grant the credit bureau 10 working days to implement the actions to correct the deficient areas.

PART 8
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sale of credit performance information

30. (1) A credit bureau may not, apart from its own business of selling credit reports -
(a) sell;
(b) lease;
(c) transfer title of its credit performance information; or
(d) any file,

unless such sale, lease or transfer is done to another credit bureau with the approval of the Bank.

(2) Nothing contained in these regulations may prevent a credit bureau from doing market segmentation and sell aggregated credit performance information, but personal information of data subjects may not be disclosed.

Retention period of data subject information on credit bureau database

31. (1) In this regulation -

“adverse classifications of consumer behaviour” means subjective classifications of consumer behaviour, determined by the Bank and includes classifications such as ‘delinquent’, ‘slow paying’, ‘absconded’ or ‘not contactable’;

Disposal of information

32. (1) Where a credit bureau terminates business and surrenders its licence due to bankruptcy or liquidation, the data provided to the credit bureau by credit performance information providers and sources stored in the database of the credit bureau is surrendered to the Bank without any compensation.

(2) The Bank may make information in the database mentioned in subregulation (1) available to another credit bureau.

Indemnification

33. (1) The Bank or an employee or representative of the Bank or any person performing a function or exercising the power in terms of these regulations, is not liable for damage caused by any action taken or report presented in good faith to further the objects of these regulations, unless the damage is attributable to the gross negligence of the Bank employee, representative of the Bank or such person.

(2) A credit performance information provider must indemnify a credit bureau for any type of action or damage awards that may result from inaccurate credit performance information reported to it, if the credit bureau takes all reasonable measures to ensure the information is correct when processed by the credit bureau.

Non-compliance notice

34. (1) The Bank may issue a non-compliance notice in the form determined by the Bank to -

(a) a person whom the Bank on reasonable grounds believes -

(i) has failed to comply with a provision of these regulations; or
