[Regulation 6 is substituted by General Notice 331/2013 and by General Notice 181/2016. It was declared unconstitutional with effect from 11 June 2018 by Communications Regulatory Authority of Namibia v Telecom Namibia Ltd & Others 2018 NASC (11 June 2018). This case also held that the regulation, during its period of validity, may not be applied retrospectively to anything which occurred before the date on which the regulation came into force (13 September 2012).]

Payment of Licence Fees

7. (1) The licence fee must be paid by way of electronic transfer or direct deposit into the Authority’s bank account.
(2) The licence fee must be paid on or before the due date, which is six months after the licensee’s financial year end.

(3) Licence fees which are based on a percentage of turnover must be calculated based on the licensee’s audited annual financial statements, or, if the licensee is not required by law to audit its financial statements, on the annual financial statements signed and sworn by the accounting officer of the licensee.

(4) For the purposes of these regulations, turnover is turnover excluding value added tax.

(5) The licensee’s annual audited (or signed and sworn) financial statements must be submitted to the Authority on or before the due date for payment of the licence fee, which submission must be accompanied by documentary proof of payment of the licence fee.

Interest and Penalties in respect of Payment of Licence Fees

8. (1) If a licensee fails to pay its annual licence fee or fails to submit its annual audited (or signed and sworn) financial statements on or before the due date, the licensee may also pay interest on the overdue amount from the due date to the date of payment (or the dates of submission of its annual audited (or signed and sworn) financial statements), at the rate of three percent above the then current overdraft interest rate being charged by the Authority’s bankers.

(2) If a licensee fails to pay its annual licence fee or fails to submit its annual audited (or signed and sworn) financial statements within 45 days after the due date, the licensee may, in addition to paying interest as set out above, also pay a late payment penalty of 25 percent of the overdue amount.

(3) If a licensee fails to pay its annual licence fee or submit its annual audited (or signed and sworn) financial statements within 120 days after the due date, the licensee may, in addition to paying the interest set out above, must either -

(a) also pay a late payment penalty up to 50 percent of the overdue amount; or

(b) surrender its licence or licences to the Authority.

(4) If a licensee fails to pay its annual licence fee or submit its annual audited (or signed and sworn) financial statements and fails to pay interest and the late payment penalty set out above, within six months after the due date, and fails to surrender its licence or licences to the Authority, the Authority shall, after following a due process specified under regulations (6) and (7) below, declare the licence (and related spectrum use or other licences) forfeited and/or impose a fine not exceeding N$5 000 000.00.

(5) The Authority must before imposing an interest rate penalty, late payment penalty or before declaring the forfeiture of a licence of a licensee as a result of the late submission of annual financial statements and late payment of its annual license and non-surrender of the licence, follow a due process as described in regulations (6) and (7) below.

(6) The Authority must, give the licensee an opportunity to be heard and shall grant a period of not less than 14 days to the licensee within which to make representations to the Authority about the matter.
(7) After consideration of the representations referred to or if no such representations have been made the Authority may determine whether to impose the interest rate penalty, late payment penalty or declare the forfeiture of the license of the licensee.
